

"HAND TO HAND"

by MARK HAINES
arr. by M. Haines & Tom Leighton

verse

They come from times of strife and trou - ble, Hau - lin' harp and sho - vel, From Soon a slow mi - gra - tion, Brought child - ren of re - li - gion, Play the Ma - son's A - pron, I play The De - vils' Dream, I homes a - cross the o - cean, They braved the west - ern sea, And the Tired of per - se - cu - tion, They fled the fa - ther land, And they sing A - maz - ing Grace, AAd Clo - ser Walk With Thee, And songs of loss and greiv - in', And sad - ness at their leav - in', Soon built the firm foun - da - tion, On the shores of the new na - tion, their from the church - 's bell call, Out to the coun - try dance halls, I turned to hope of a home in the new coun - try. And hymns of prais - es e - choed up the strand. And hear the tunes our fa - thers left for me. And through Lou - i - si - an - na, All the way up to New - found - land, The through Lou - i - si - an - na, All the way up to New - found - land, The

through Lou - i - si - an - na, All the way up to New - found - land, The songs of the new A - mer - i - cans, Were passed from hand to songs of the new Can - a - di - ans, Were passed from hand to

hand, oh Passed from hand to hand. They were passed from hand to hand, oh Passed from hand to hand. They were hand, oh Passed from hand to hand.
